Staffordshire Sentinel and Commercial & General Advertiser Saturday 26 November 1870

Weights and Measures. Thomas Glover, a shopkeeper living Smallthorne, was charged by Captain Knight with having a pair of unjust scales two drachms against the purchaser, Fined £1 and costs.— David Jones, grocer, of Sneyd Green, was charged with having a pair of tea scales one and a half drachms against the purchaser. Fined 2s. 6d. and costs. —James Ball, butcher, Bagnall. was charged with using a pair scales in Burslem market three ounces against the purchaser. Fined 2s. 6d. and costs.—George Moore, farmer, living at Alsager, Cheshire, was charged with using a pair scales one ounce against the purchaser, in Burslem market - - -

And the list goes on and on

